

Dr Owen Muana

Owen Muana, M.D.

Dr. Owen Muana

Dr. Owen Muana is double certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine. He is both certified in Internal Medicine and Geriatric Medicine. He earned his M.D. degree in April 2000 at the University of the Visayas-Gullas College of Medicine in Cebu Philippines. Dr. Muana had his Internal Medicine Residency and Geriatric Medicine Fellowship training at the New York Flushing Hospital Medical Center in Flushing, Queens, New York.

Having practiced both across the U.S. (New York, Virginia and Hawai'i) and abroad (in the Philippines), Dr. Muana currently enjoys serving our Kaua'i community at our Ho'ola Lahui Hawai'i Waimea Medical Clinic.

Dr. Muana is fluent in English as well as Visayan and Tagalog dialects. He was the president of the Philippine Medical Association of Southeastern Virginia in 2016. He co-captained a champion Dragon boat racing team during his fellowship training in Flushing, New York. He enjoys fishing, detailing cars as well as fixing cars. His favorite sports are basketball, baseball, table tennis and archery. Dr. Muana is married to a Physical Therapist and they have 3 daughters. He is active in church choir and spending time with his family is what he loves the most.