

Introducing

Dr. Lauren Bundschuh

Lauren Bundschuh
D.D.S

Graduated from Northwestern Dental School in Chicago, Illinois in 1986 with a degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery. She is married to Rick Bundschuh and blessed with four children. She enjoys God, family, movies (especially documentaries), Koke'e and rain. She also enjoys going on foreign Dental Missions. In the past, She has been to several countries in South America, Fiji, Haiti and Thailand providing dental treatment to those that either have never seen a dentist or are unable to.

She believes the specialness of Waimea Dental is that they invest in their patients not only in the area of oral health but the well being of the entire person. At their patient centered clinic, they provide comprehensive dental treatment with professionalism, expertise and a gentle touch. Uniquely, they are in close collaboration with the Behavior Health and Medical team of Ho'ola Lahu'i Hawai'i—Kauai Community Health Center giving the patient an opportunity for a team approach to optimal health!